Introduction

The Uzbek language is the independence and national identity of our people. It is a priceless spiritual treasure that expresses its uniqueness. Uzbek on October 21, 1989 granting the status of the state language to the language was the first step towards independence. Today 30 years have passed since this historical date. President of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev a ceremony dedicated to the 30th anniversary of the granting of the status of the state language to the Uzbek language in his speech at the ceremony, the influence and influence of the Uzbek language in the life of the state and society. He noted that the increase is one of the most important tasks. Our mother tongue and literature glorifying, conveying its rich treasure, freshness and sophistication to the younger generation in order to organize creative schools named after famous poets and writers in our country Uzbek language and literature, artistic creativity were taught in these creative schools all conditions have been created for in-depth study of its secrets. by our President The signing of the Decree "On measures to fundamentally increase the prestige and status of the Uzbek language as a state language" also made us all happy. In particular, the issue of raising attention to the language to the highest level is the development of the Motherland. It is very important that it is equated with the issue of Nowadays, the Uzbek language is the state language. As a language, it is active in our political-legal, socio-economic, spiritual-educational life is being used, and is being played on international platforms. This year on September 23 our honorable president Shavkat Mirziyoyev UN General Assembly 75- and the fact that he gave a speech at the session can be a clear proof of our opinion. Unique Uzbek The resounding of our language in the international arena is boundless in the hearts of all our compatriots gave pride and honor. Our head of state: "Everyone has the Uzbek language if you want to feel the grace, charm and power of influence, unlimited possibilities, the gods of our munis mothers, our thousand-year epics, our immortal statuses let him listen to the magical songs of our bakhshi and hafiz" - he said what he said was true.

Main body

The Uzbek language is a tree. Its roots are very old and strong. It has passed many tests to date. Ulug Navoi in his works that our language has a power as high as the heavens, it is less than other languages if it proved that it has no place, on the contrary, it has its own charm, at the beginning of the century, enlightened writer Abdulla Qadiri disparaged the Uzbek language he answered the following people: - "The Uzbek language is not poor, but Uzbek Those who say their language is poor are themselves poor. They express their ignorance in the Uzbek language let them not fall." According to scientists, a language needs at least one million people to survive he should speak. However, there are only 250 such languages in the world. The Uzbek language is also among these 250 languages. Currently in Uzbek the number of speakers has approached 50 million people worldwide. The Uzbek language is the rich history of our nation, ancient and colorful culture formed under the influence of Today, our country is in all countries of the world in honor of the visit of delegations, the achievements of our youth and the victories of our athletes Our national anthem is being sung in Uzbek. If the language lives, the nation lives. If we can show the richness and beauty of our language to the world, its in the society If we strengthen our position, our future will be bright and our unity will be eternal. After all, in order to destroy a nation, it is not necessary to enter its territory with weapons, that it is necessary to destroy its language, spirituality, literature, and then the nation itself history itself has shown with clear evidence that it will disappear.

Conclusion

Language is the sun of the nation. If it does not shine, literature cannot be created, history is simple will remain in the past. Without language, the connection between ancestors and descendants is lost. If there is no language, the poet cannot put the feelings of his heart into words. Navoi and our grandfather considered the language to be a treasure, noted that it is surrounded by thorns and cleansed the Turkish language of thorns and snakes. The tongue is the lock of the heart, and the word is its key. When a nation loses its language, it also loses its sacred religion loses. Love for the country begins with love for the language. Country Language is both the expression and the representative of power.
