

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS OF UZBEKISTAN

Ahmedov Azimjon the teacher of Andijan State Institute of Foreign Languages
Rahimova Feruza Bakhtiyor's daughter the 301- Guide fellowship and translation theory student of Andijan State Institute of Foreign Languages

Abstract: Uzbekistan's international relations are developing day by day, strengthening friendly and harmonious neighborly relations with regional countries, developing scientific-technical and cultural-humanitarian cooperation, strengthening relations between parliaments, border regions, public organizations and ordinary citizens. and detailed information is provided in the article.

Key words: international relations, state, laws, politics, independence, foreign, embassies, ambassador, Conducting a unified state policy in the field of international political and economic relations ensures the further development of economic and financial cooperation of Uzbekistan with foreign countries, international economic organizations and financial institutions, and other subjects of international law on a mutually beneficial basis. Therefore, the economic reforms carried out in our country are aimed at ensuring Uzbekistan's place in the world economic system in the short term and equal cooperation with all countries of the world.

In the difficult situation of previous times, independent Uzbekistan had to determine its foreign policy. In the first days of independence, the issues of defining a thorough foreign political path in accordance with the national interests of Uzbekistan, joining the world community, and establishing political, economic, scientific-technical, diplomatic, cultural and other forms of relations with foreign countries.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs,

- a. Ministry of Foreign Economic Relations,
- b. National Bank of Foreign Economic Activity,
- c. Specialized foreign trade companies,
- d. University of World Economy and Diplomacy,
- e. State and Society Building Academy under the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan, etc.

In determining the foreign political and economic path of Uzbekistan, the world experience was used, the characteristics and interests of our country and people were taken into account. The main principles of the foreign policy of the Republic of Uzbekistan are as follows: - Openness to cooperation regardless of ideological views, commitment to universal values, peace and security. Respecting the sovereign equality of states and the inviolability of borders. Non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries.

Peaceful resolution of disputes.

No use of force and no threat of force.

In addition, Uzbekistan is a member of the following major international organizations:

f. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (UN);

g. International Trade Law Commission (UN);

h. Organization for Education, Science and Culture (UNESCO);

i. Economic Commission for Europe (UN);

j. World Intellectual Property Organization;

k. World Health Organization;

l. International Labor Organization;

m. International Organization of Civil Aviation;

n. Universal Postal Union;

o. International Telecommunication Union;

p. International Trade Center;

q. World Bank for Reconstruction and Development;

r. International Monetary Fund;

s. Asian Development Bank;

t. World Customs Organization;

u. Islamic Development Bank;

v. Organization of the Islamic Conference;

w. International Consultative Committee on Cotton;

References:

1. <https://cyberleninka.ru/article/n/xalqaro-siyosiy-munosabatlar-doirasida-ozbekistonning-siyosiy-kapitalini-rivojlantirish-bosqichlari>
2. <https://www.elib.buxdu.uz/index.php/pages/referatlar-mustaqil-ish-kurs-ishi/item/13836-mustaqil-o-zbekiston-xalqaro-munosabatlar-tizimida-1991-2010-yy>
3. Yoʻldasheva.G- "Diplomatik va konsullik huquqi"
4. Рахимова.М.А-"Дипломатическая служба".