Shavkat Mirziyoyev, the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan, in his On December 20, 2022, address to the Oliy Majlis and the people of Uzbekistan pondered how to shield our people from the negative effects of many stressed the following damaging concepts: fanaticism, terrorism, human.

Unfortunately, drug abuse and human trafficking will not escape our attention. But once more, in our a region of the world where eminent scientists like Imam Bukhari, Imam Termizi, Imam Moturidi, who raised the Muslim Ummah, might there be individuals who are The moral harm of terrorism comes from the fact that it can cause a significant portion of the population to become mentally paralyzed in addition to physically destroying people. People experience emotions like fear, terror, and confusion as a result of these can become filled with uncertainty and lose faith in everything. themselves. Just as the physical effects of using weapons of mass devastation are horrible, Terrorism is a dreadful tool that paralyzes people spiritually and causes losses. [2].

The organizational pillars of inhumane, foreign concepts include religious extremism, militancy propaganda, false religious beliefs, fanaticism, international terrorism, drug trafficking, and illegal arms trade. Through them, they become aware of nefarious motives.

Destructive ideas cannot spread because of a number of circumstances. This is carried out mostly because of the human element. The depth of a person's spiritual life affords him the chance to appreciate the distinctions between concepts. Builds up ideological resistance. How to stop bad ideas from entering the

The following definitions apply to national idea propaganda technologies:
ensuring the family's children are raised in a healthy environment; restoring citizens' faith in the principles underlying the national concept;
live your life with national honor and pride;

to raise a peaceful generation in all ways;
raising ideological defenses.

These negative vices, such as arrogance and arrogance, boasting, flattery, jealousy, vanity, disdain for the truth, familiarity, parochialism, careerism, and self-interest, which are negative states, are in opposition to the promotion of the national principle: We should all learn from our own mistakes[3]. This is how the

Shavkat Mirziyoyev, the president of the Republic of Uzbekistan, says: "I require actual patriots." [4]

Our state has made it possible for different religious organizations to carry out their duties and take an active part in national affairs. In particular, it is appropriate to highlight occasions like those when the Muslim Board of Uzbekistan's national television's spiritual and educational programming, large-scale seminars honoring the birthdays of renowned religious figures.

Nonetheless, despite the chances made available, it is unfortunate that some religious movements took advantage of our people's tolerance to advance not only their own religious views and beliefs but also political and extreme objectives.

They belittle individuals who worship in accordance with the Hanafi system, ridicule its scientists, and accuse those who do not of infidelity, according to our people, who have been practicing the Hanafi school for many generations debate with imams, abide by religious tenets, and there have been instances where impersonation of spokesman for other cults.

Extremist organizations like Hizbut-Tahrir, Akromia, Tavba, and Adolat widely disseminate religious material from other nations that encourages religious fanaticism and instills fear and panic in people. Countries like Yushmasa and Stability started to display shares targeted towards the mortgage. At the same time, other missionary initiatives started to enter our nation approaches, with the primary intention of dividing the country and society along religious lines. the lack of a strong enough legislative barrier in our republic's legislation The repercussions of missionary work might have been fatally serious. the like requires amending the Law on Conscience and Religious Freedom Institutions [5]

The Republic of Uzbekistan's Legislation "On Freedom of Conscience and Religious Organizations" went into effect on July 6, 2021 [6]. This law has 35 provisions and was created taking into account the unique circumstances of our nation, the Rights, interests, and mentality of the inhabitants were considered account. The primary goals of the law are to protect religious liberty and the every person's freedom to practice their religion, guaranteeing their equality as citizens in all respects as well as establishing rules for interactions including the activities of a religious institution.

Globalization, including the spread of terrorism, is generally compared to an infectious disease that starts in one location and only spreads to other locations where prompt action is not done to stop it. The spread of terrorism worldwide most frequently occurs in particular nations experiencing violent conflicts. While doing so, Due to the increasing worldwide significance of international terrorism as a concern dang level of it.

We need to maintain a climate of peace and calm, as well as harmony between our citizens and peoples, in our nation during this tense time. The most important thing we can do for our kids is to keep their hearts and minds safe from harmful hazards critical task [7].

Currently, as the war for a person's mind and soul becomes more intense, In the fight against, it's crucial to focus on the following crucial tasks: terrorism on a global scale.

Modes:

Firstly, religious extremism, fanaticism and terrorist acts taking place today in different countries of the world show that neither religion nor nation chooses, they are the enemies of all mankind, the fight against which is an important task and duty not only of the world community, but also directly the state and people of Uzbekistan must be introduced into the minds of our citizens that;

Secondly, it is necessary to bring to the consciousness of every citizen that international terrorism is one of the most negative phenomena of the era, which literally contradicts the strategic goals of our national independence, state sovereignty and democratic development of our country.

First, religious extremism, fanaticism, and terrorist activities that are occurring today in various nations throughout the world demonstrate that neither religion nor nation has any say in the matter; they are the enemies of all humanity, and combating them is a crucial work and duty not only of the international community, but also specifically of the government and people of Uzbekistan Our residents need to be made aware of the following:

Second, it's important to make sure that every citizen understands that One of the most harmful trends of the day is international.
