Annotation: The scientific article is about how bad corruption is, which is considered as a barrier to society and development, and how everyone should fight against this evil.

Key words: Corruption, legal literacy, law,

The term corruption usually means that officials use the authority and rights given to them for their own personal interests, contrary to the laws and ethics. All over the world, every country that chooses the path of development and progress fights against negative vices such as corruption, greed, and bribery. Because this illiat has hindered the development of society in all times. Even today, corruption is one of the main problems that must be solved. Every conscientious person realizes that corruption is a vice that derails the life of a person and society, hinders the development of society. This vice undermines the foundations of democracy and the rule of law, leads to violations of human rights, hinders the functioning of markets, worsens the quality of life, and creates conditions for organized crime, terrorism and other phenomena that threaten people's security to take root and flourish.

The main directions of the state policy in the field of combating corruption in our country are to raise the legal consciousness and legal culture of the population, to form an intolerant attitude towards corruption in our society, to implement measures to prevent corruption in all spheres of state and community life, to prosecute corruption-related offenses. tasks such as identifying them in time, putting an end to them, eliminating their consequences, the reasons and conditions that enable it, and ensuring the principle of inevitability of responsibility for committing corruption-related offenses are indicated.

In addition, raising the legal consciousness and legal culture of the population in the fight against corruption, forming an uncompromising attitude towards corruption in the society, increasing the legal literacy of the employees of state bodies and other organizations, legal education and training in the field of fighting corruption in educational institutions is one of the important tasks of today. Because people with a high level of legal consciousness and legal culture, who are mature in terms of legal education and upbringing, do not allow corruption, which is a negative vice.

In recent years, many positive works have been carried out in our country by the Honorable President Shavkat Mirziyoyev in the fight against corruption and its elimination. In our society, it is necessary to take strict measures to fight against corruption, commission of various crimes and other violations, to prevent them, and to ensure in practice the requirements of the law that punishment for crime is inevitable. is highlighted. The Law of the Republic of Uzbekistan "On Combating Corruption" came into force on January 4, 2017, creating all the grounds for ending corruption. In order to fully and effectively ensure the implementation of this law, on February 2, 2017, the decision of the head of our state on measures to implement the provisions of the Law of the Republic of Uzbekistan "On Combating Corruption" was adopted.

It should be noted that at the moment, the republican interdepartmental commission to fight against corruption has implemented various state programs aimed at the implementation of effective measures to comprehensively eliminate the causes and conditions necessary for the occurrence of this crime in all spheres of state and community life. is increasing. The public is worried that corruption is a serious obstacle during the implementation of political and economic reforms in our country. The processes of democratization and modernization of the society started by our president continue with difficulty. President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Sh. Mirziyoyev emphasized that the fight against this bad evil is one of the main criteria of the main idea of our country and said the following thoughts: "Corruption is an extremely dangerous threat that destroys our country from the inside and compromises our national security, and we must fight against it uncompromisingly. - it is the duty of all of us."

For most people, corruption is a type of crime. In fact, it is a bad vice that leads society to chaos and starts its decline. Whether a country is poor or rich, a democracy or a monarchy, it can face corruption at any time and under any circumstances. It is such that people can destroy a society without any nuclear weapons, completely unaware that they are axing themselves with their own hands, and when they do, it will be too late. That is why the fight against corruption has always been important. For this, it is necessary to make the society knowledgeable and enlightened and always start on the right path. Today, the fight against corruption is becoming important and urgent not only in our society, but also at the international level. For this reason, we should fight against corruption in a rational way with knowledge and spirituality.

In conclusion, each of us should fight against corruption as an important part of society. If we can form immunity against corruption in the young generation, they will grow up to be forward-thinking, patriotic people of our society and will grow up to be important people who will make a worthy contribution to the development of Uzbekistan.
