INTRODUCTION

To my knowledge online learning is interesting and effortless, that's why at the present time it is popular in all countries, demand, and desire are strong. From this topic you will know about online learning and also you will be able to get different, new, modern methods and knowledge, and through this topic, you can get information about the benefits and harms of online learning, and at the same time, you will get many opinions. Through this topic, I hope that you will get answers to your questions about the benefits of online organization, whether it is possible to learn, whether it is necessary to have enough knowledge for this.

METHODS

Online learning has become a widespread and modern method of learning among all countries as a result of now the world is developing, there are many modern technology, internet sources, and news, and at the same time, these modern technologies are also popular in our country. By reason of you will get the necessary and fast knowledge during online and it is a very useful way of learning in which you will be able to see many useful points online. Moreover, in online learning have 2 types: one of this is studying independently from the internet sources, and other is learning online with teacher which by enrolling in online classes. In addition to these 2 types, now we will learn about the benefits of online streaming, as you know while learning online you could:

- ✓ Save your time

- ✓ Acquire comfortable learning
- ✓ Developing technical skills
- ✓ Stretching your training budget
- ✓ Taking global knowledge
- ✓ Quick and easy solution
- ✓ Relearning anytime
- ✓ And studying anywhere.

If you are one of the 2 types, as I said before you can determine your path, that is, your type, based on the directions that suit you. And let`s talk this ways in our results.

RESULT

During online learning, you should save your time, and during this you can learn the necessary information at that time, you can learn while you are busy with other work. But this will not give much result; maybe your mind will be distracted. I will give my thoughts based on the above mentioned opinion. Self-study is for whom, and what should you pay attention to in this study. In this direction, you need to be at the specified level, that you can understand, which means that you can do self-study with an elementary level. Because you will have many questions and no one will be able to answer them for you, and from this your level become good, that is, if you are an intermediate or pre-intermediate, you can learn online without any difficulties. As a result of you know the answer to the question that needs to be asked. With this degree, you are self-studying, and in this direction, you save your time first, wherever you want, you can learn different places for instance in the garden or in the library, you can easily play through headphones. And in addition, during the study, you will take various news and knowledge and you can organize it as a new teaching method for yourself.

The 2nd method of online organization is to enroll in an online course or an online course, in which no level is required of you. You can organize it with the desired level of knowledge because the person who will teach you is clear and you will be able to ask any questions and taking that answers quickly and easily I think this is very useful for beginners. As you know, it is very expensive to learn with an beginner level this way you will save your money as well as your valuable the time you spend getting organized may pass on the way. For example, you can watch online lessons again and again and each time you watch it, you will have fewer questions. In addition, what I want to say is that it is more convenient for you to study online.

INTRODUCTION

Through this topic, you need to know how modern and popular online organization is and find out what type of online learner you are. You know that online learning can be very difficult or even incomprehensible but after getting acquainted with the ideas presented above, you will understand and if you can quickly and easily get on your way by choosing the way to learn quickly, this direction will definitely benefit you. I could say clearly that in the future, online methods will continue to develop and become popular, and the methods will change and improve.
